DJANOGLY LEARNING TRUST

Complaints Procedure

1.0 Overview

- 1.1 Governing Bodies of Academies, Free Schools and Independent schools are required, under The Education (Independent Schools Standards) Regulations 2014 to have in place a procedure to deal with complaints relating to the institution and to any community facilities or services that the institution provides. The law also requires the procedure to be publicised.
- 1.2 There are certain complaints which fall outside the remit of the Complaints Procedure, for example, staff grievances or disciplinary procedures. It is recommended that the Djanogly Learning Trust (the Trust) ensures that any third party providers offering community facilities or services through the use of its premises or facilities [even if, for example, it is hiring them out for a wedding reception], have their own complaints procedure in place.
- 1.3 The term "complainant" has been used for all those bringing a complaint against the Trust/Academy and includes all complainants, not specifically parents or carers.

Part 1: General Principles of complaints

2.0 Dealing with Complaints – Initial Concerns

- 2.1 The Trust needs to be clear about the difference between a concern and a complaint. Taking informal concerns seriously, at the earliest stage will reduce the numbers that develop into formal complaints.
- 2.2 This procedure deals with complaints but the underlying principle is that concerns ought to be handled, if at all possible, without the need for formal processes. The requirement to have a complaints procedure need not in any way undermine efforts to resolve the concern informally. In most cases the individual delivering the service will receive the first approach. It would be helpful if staff were able to resolve issues on the spot, including apologising where necessary.

3.0 Dealing with Complaints – Formal Procedures

- 3.1 The formal procedures will need to be invoked when initial attempts to resolve the issue are unsuccessful and the person raising the concern remains dissatisfied and wishes to take the matter further.
- 3.2 The Trust and each Academy will have a nominated member of staff with responsibility for the operation and management of the Trust's complaints procedure, and to be referred to as the Trust/Academy "Complaints Co-ordinator".

4.0 Framework of Principles

The Trust's Complaints Procedure is designed to:

- a. Encourage resolution of problems by informal means if possible
- b. Be easily accessible and publicised
- c. Be simple to understand and use
- d. Be impartial
- e. Be non-adversarial
- f. Allow swift handling with established time-limits for action and keeping people informed of the progress
- g. Ensure a full and fair investigation by an independent person
- h. Respect people's desire for confidentiality
- i. Address all the points at issue and provide an effective response and appropriate redress, where necessary
- j. Provide information to the senior leadership teams so that services can be improved.

5.0 Investigating Complaints

It is suggested that at each stage, the person investigating the complaint (the Complaints Co-ordinator in most instances), makes sure that they:

- a. Establish what has happened so far, and who has been involved
- b. Clarify the nature of the complaint and what remains unresolved
- c. Meet with the complainant or contact them (if unsure or further information is necessary)
- d. Clarify what the complainant feels would put things right
- e. Interview those involved in the matter and/or those complained of, allowing them to be accompanied if they wish
- f. Conduct the interview with an open mind and be prepared to persist in the questioning
- g. Keep notes of the interview.

6.0 Resolving Complaints

- 6.1 At each stage in the procedure the Trust/Academy will want to keep in mind ways in which a complaint can be resolved. It might be sufficient to acknowledge that the complaint is valid in whole or in part. In addition, it may be appropriate to offer one or more of the following:
- a. An apology
 - b. An explanation
 - c. An admission that the situation could have been handled differently or better
 - d. An assurance that the event complained of will not recur
 - e. An explanation of the steps that have been taken to ensure that it will not happen again
 - f. An undertaking to review policies in light of the complaint.
- 6.2 It would be useful if complainants were encouraged to state what actions they feel might resolve the problem at any stage. An admission that the the situation could have been handled better is not the same as an admission of negligence.
- 6.3 An effective procedure will identify areas of agreement between the parties. It is also of equal importance to clarify any misunderstandings that might have occurred as this can create a positive atmosphere in which to discuss any outstanding issues.

7.0 Vexatious Complaints

If properly followed, a good complaints procedure will limit the number of complaints that become protracted. However, there will be occasions when, despite all stages of the procedures having been followed, the complainant remains dissatisfied. If the complainant tries to reopen the same issue, the Chairman of the Board of Directors/Local Governing Body is able to inform them in writing that the procedure has been exhausted and that the matter is now closed.

8.0 Unacceptable Behaviour From Complainants

- 8.1 It is expected that the complainants will behave in an appropriate manner such that the process, either informal or formal, can proceed in a mutually acceptable way towards a resolution. The acceptable behaviour principles will be no different from those expected of students and teachers within the Academy as outlined in the Behaviour policy. If the complainants consistently display unacceptable behaviour then the Academy has the right to postpone the meeting.

9.0 Time-Limits

Complaints need to be considered, and resolved, as quickly and efficiently as possible. An effective complaints procedure will have clear and realistic time limits for each action within each stage. However, where further investigations are necessary, new time limits can be set and the complainant sent details of the new deadline and an explanation for the delay. At all times the Trust/Academy will endeavour to provide reasonable notice to complainants of meetings or more formal hearings.

Part 2: The Formal Complaints Procedure

10.0 The Stages of Complaints

10.1 A flow chart of the three stages of complaint is in Appendix C. There may, on occasion, be the need for some flexibility; for example, the possibility of further meetings between the complainant and the member of staff directly involved and further investigations may be required by the Headteacher/Principal/Director of Operations after a meeting with the complainant.

10.2 The three stages are:

1. Complaint heard by staff member or Complaints Co-ordinator
2. Complaint heard by the Director of Operations/Academy Headteacher/ Principal or designate
3. Complaint heard by the designated Governor for complaints
4. Complaint heard by Board of Director's/Local Governing Body's Complaints Panel.

Timing:

- The complainant shall receive a response to their initial complaint within 14 working days
- If further investigation is required that date will be extended and the complainant informed of the delay and the new response deadline
- Full details of complaints panel will be provided to the complainant allowing reasonable notice.

10.3 The Board of Directors/Local Governing Body reserves the right to allow, or not, another external agency to carry out an independent appeal or review.

10.4 Complaints against the Director of Operations/Headteacher/Principal will be investigated by the Chairman the Board of Directors/ Local Governing Body. A complaint against a director/governor will be heard by a director/governor who has not been involved in the issue previously.

10.5 The complaints procedure in summary form is in Appendix B.

Part 3 – Managing and Recording Complaints

11.0 Recording Complaints

11.1 A complaint may be made in person, by telephone, or in writing. A proforma complaint form can be found in Appendix D. At the end of a meeting or telephone call, it would be helpful if the member of staff ensured that the complainant and the Trust/Academy have the same understanding of what was discussed and agreed. A brief note of meetings and telephone calls should be kept and a copy of any written response forwarded to the Complaints Co-ordinator.

11.2 The Complaints Co-ordinator is responsible for holding such records securely and confidentially and reporting back, as required, to Senior Management.

12.0 Board of Directors/ Local Governing Body Review

12.1 The Board of Directors/Local Governing Body can monitor the level and nature of complaints and review the outcomes on a regular basis to ensure the effectiveness of the procedure and make changes where necessary. Complaints information shared with the whole Board of Directors/Local Governing Body will not name individuals.

12.2 As well as addressing an individual's complaints, the process of listening to, and resolving, complaints will contribute to the Trust's/Academy's improvement. When individual complaints are heard, the Trust/Academy may identify underlying issues that need to be addressed. The monitoring and review of complaints by the Trust/Academy and the Board of Directors/Local Governing Body is a useful tool in evaluating the Trust's/Academy's performance.

13.0 Complaints Panel

13.1 The panel, which may consist of three or five people, will be drawn largely from the Board of Directors/Local Governing Body, but must include one member who is independent of the management and running of the academy. The panel choose their own chair. The panel can:

- a. Dismiss the complaint in whole or in part
 - b. Uphold the complaint in whole or in part
 - c. Decide on the appropriate action to be taken to resolve the complaint
 - d. Recommend changes to the Trust's/Academy's systems or procedures to ensure that problems of a similar nature do not recur.
- 13.2 It is important that the appeal hearing is independent and impartial and that it is seen to be so. No director/governor may sit on the panel if they have had a prior involvement in the complaint or in the circumstances surrounding it. In deciding the make-up of the panel, directors/governors need to try and ensure that it is a cross-section of the categories of director/governor and sensitive to the issues of race, gender and religious affiliation. The panel must also include an independent member.
- 13.3 The aim of the hearing, which needs to be held in private, will always be to resolve the complaint and achieve reconciliation between the Trust/Academy and the complainant. However, it has to be recognised the complainant might not be satisfied with the outcome if the hearing does not find in their favour. It may only be possible to establish the facts and make recommendations which will satisfy the complainant that his or her complaint has been taken seriously.
- 13.4 An effective panel will acknowledge that many complainants feel nervous and inhibited in a formal setting. Parents often feel emotional when discussing an issue that affects their child. The panel chair will ensure that the proceedings are as welcoming as possible. The layout of the room will set the tone and care is needed to ensure the setting is informal and not adversarial. Parents may be accompanied to the panel hearing if they so wish.
- 13.5 Extra care needs to be taken when the complainant is a child. Careful consideration of the atmosphere and proceedings will ensure that the child does not feel intimidated. The panel needs to be aware of the views of the child and give them equal consideration to those of adults. Where the child's parent/carer is the complainant, it would be helpful to give the parent/carer the opportunity to say which parts of the hearing, if any, the child needs to attend.
- 13.6 The panel members need to be aware of the complaints procedure.

13.7 The Complaints Panel will be serviced by a clerk who will be the contact point for the complainant and be required to:

- a. Set the date, time and venue of the hearing, ensuring that the dates are convenient to all parties and that the venue and proceedings are accessible
- b. Collate any written material and send it to the parties in advance of the hearing
- c. Meet and welcome the parties as they arrive at the hearing
- d. Record the proceedings
- e. Notify all parties of the Panel's decision.

13.8 The Chairman of the Panel has a key role, to ensure that:

- a. The correct procedure has been followed
- b. The clerk is notified to arrange a panel if a hearing is appropriate
- c. The remit of the Panel is explained to the parties and each party has the opportunity of putting their case without undue interruption
- d. The issues are addressed
- e. Key findings of fact are made
- f. Parents and others who may not be used to speaking at such a hearing are put at ease
- g. The hearing is conducted in an informal manner with each party treating the other with respect and courtesy
- h. The Panel is open minded and acting independently
- i. No member of the Panel has a vested interest in the outcome of the proceedings or any involvement in an earlier stage of the procedure
- j. Each side is given the opportunity to state their case and ask questions
- k. Written material is seen by all parties. If a new issue arises it would be useful to give all parties the opportunity to consider and comment on it.

13.9 The chairman of the Panel needs to ensure that the complainant is notified of the Panel's decision, in writing, with the Panel's response; this is usually within a set deadline which is publicised in the procedure. The letter needs to explain if there are any further rights of appeal and, if so, to whom they need to be addressed.

14.0 Publicising the Procedure

There is a legal requirement for the Complaints Procedure to be publicised. It is up to the Trust to decide how to fulfil this requirement but details of the Complaints Procedures could be included in:

- a. The Trust/Academy websites
- b. The information given to new parents when their children join an Academy
- c. The information given to the children themselves
- d. The home-school agreement
- e. Newsletters
- f. Documents supplied to community users including course information or letting agreements
- g. The "How to make a complaint" leaflet which includes a form on which a complaint can be made
- h. Posters displayed in areas of an Academy that will be used by the public, such as reception.

15.0 Dissatisfaction about handling of the complaint
